

Ariana Gonzales

Dance Instructor

Ariana is currently enrolled at the University of Florida as a Public Relations major. She trained in all styles at a nationally acclaimed dance studio, In Motion Dance Project, for 12 years. She has been a scholarship recipient at conventions such as Pulse, NYCDA, Jump, & 24/7 and has competed at various regional and national competitions. She has spent the last two years teaching and choreographing dance and is currently part of UF's premier dance company Danza Dance Co. Ariana is excited to share her passion for dance and aid students in growing their confidence through their journey in the dance world!
