

Francesca Bagala

Dance Instructor

Francesca Bagala began her dance career at the age of 5 in Miami, FL training at several award-winning studios. She was trained in all the various styles including but not limited to: ballet, jazz, lyrical, contemporary, hip-hop, tap, musical theatre, flamenco, and belly dance. In high school, she began competing under Ascendance Studio winning numerous judges awards and high overall titles at competitions like: Kids Artistic Review, Rainbow, StarQuest, Showstoppers, and many more. During her time in Miami, she taught several dance classes in multiple styles during the school year as well as assisted in recital and other performance events. After graduating from Ascendance Studio, she moved to Gainesville where she currently attends the University of Florida aspiring to earn a Bachelors of Arts in Political Science. Francesca continues living her love of dance as a certified Group Fitness Instructor specializing in the areas of Center Barre and Hip- Hop Fitness as well as a new member of the Independence Family. She hopes to pass on her knowledge and passion for the art to all her students and inspire them to take on challenges and express themselves freely.
